OFFERING MEMORANDUM / TERMS & CONDITIONS - GLOBAL MINING FUND (B)

1 Definition

"Application" means an application for Shares in Global Mining Fund (B) by completion of the Application Form;

"Investment Restrictions" means restrictions to the investment policy placed upon the discretion of the Manager.

2 Fund Characteristics

Global Mining Fund (B) has the following characteristics:

(a) Risk profile

Global Mining Fund (B) is a low risk fund that employs low leveraging to increase the exposure to the Investment Assets of Global Mining Fund (B).

(b) Investment objective

The investment objective of Global Mining Fund (B) is to achieve above average capital appreciation over short to medium term through the use of low Leverage while seeking to achieve these investment returns with controlled volatility and risk.

The subscription for Shares in Global Mining Fund (B) should be part of a short to medium term investment strategy implying an investment period of at least 1 to 3 years.

(c) Investment policy

The investment policy of Global Mining Fund (B) will be to invest 90% of the net proceeds raised from subscriptions together with twice the equivalent amount in borrowed funds and 10% of the net proceeds into Cash instruments.

This initial investment policy may be varied at the discretion of the Manager if in its opinion (subject to the investment restrictions) a different allocation of assets might better achieve the investment objectives of Global Mining Fund (B).

Global Mining Fund (B) will borrow from an appropriate lending institution the amount required to Leverage at such rates and on such a basis that is consistent with the investment objectives and the risk profile of Global Mining Fund (B).

The Manager may where appropriate for the reduction or control of risk arising in the management of Global Mining Fund (B) apply hedging strategies provided such strategies are consistent with the investment objectives, policies and restrictions of Global Mining Fund (B) as set out herein.

The Manager may from time to time use interest rate derivative instruments in the management of borrowing. In addition, various types of Hedging Instruments may be utilised in the management of investment risk within the investment restrictions set out herein.

The Investment Assets, borrowing and Cash Instruments will all be denominated in USDollar.

(c) Investment restrictions

The following investment restrictions will apply to Global Mining Fund (B):

- (1) It may invest up to 100% of its assets in Cash Instruments;
- (2) It may invest up to 95% of the net proceeds raised from subscriptions in Global Mining Fund (B);
- (3) For the purposes of efficient portfolio management Global Mining Fund (B) may borrow up to 20% of the Net Asset Value of Global Mining Fund (B);
- (4) It may enter into hedging transactions provided that the total value of all cash and other property paid, transferred or deposited by way of a premium or initial payment would in respect of all other hedging transactions not closed out, not exceed 5% of the Net Asset Value of Global Mining Fund (B).

If any of the above investment restrictions are breached, the Manager shall take as a priority objective all steps as are necessary within a reasonable time to remedy the situation taking due account of the interests of the investors.

6 Risk Warning

(a) Investment risk

It should be remembered that the price of the Shares and the income from them (if any) can go down as well as up and that the effect of both gains and losses are multiplied by the use of Leverage. On the redemption of their Shares, investors may not receive the amount that they originally invested but not exceeding 94% of invested amount.

(b) Availability risk

The performance of Global Mining Fund (B) may be dependent on Global Mining Fund (B)'s ongoing ability to purchase Investment Assets and the availability to Leverage where required, meeting the investment objectives of Global Mining Fund (B). A change in the availability of Investment Assets or Leverage could adversely affect the Manager's ability to execute its investment policy leading to the potential failure of Global Mining Fund (B), meeting its investment objective.

(c) Leverage risk

Global Mining Fund (B) uses Leverage to increase potential investment returns a significant risk exists where the cost of borrowing exceeds the rate of return of the Investment Assets. Global Mining Fund (B)'s exposure to capital risks may be increased by the multiple of Leverage employed.

Funds which use Leverage have entered into agreements with lenders that contain covenants. If Global Mining Fund (B) was to breach any of the said covenants the Company may be forced to change its investment policy to rectify the said breach which may ultimately result in the forced sale of Investment Assets.

(d) Custody risk

As Global Mining Fund (B) borrows for the purpose of Leverage it may be required to provide security. Where security is required, assets will be deposited with the lender and will cease to be within the Custodian's exclusive control. Accordingly, Global Mining Fund (B) may be exposed to acts, omissions or insolvency risk of the lender.

(e) Interest rate risk

Interest rates are subject to market fluctuations. Under adverse market conditions interest rates may be in excess of the investment returns of Investment Assets, thereby reducing Global Mining Fund (B)'s performance or the Net Asset Value.
